THE COURTS.

A Pitiful Tale of Cruelty, Inhumanity and Divorce.

A STUDENT'S UNHAPPINESS.

The courts still continue to turn out the usual num ber of diverce suits, and yesterday was no exception to the general rule. Added to the list is a suit for limted divorce brought by Ross Bertman against her susband, Moses Bertman, which is brought in the Court of Common Pleas. In her complaint Mrs. Bertan says that she was married to the defendant on Since that time the defendant has been al-most uniformly cruel and abusive to her. March, without any cause or provocation, he struck for and beat her severely, injuring her face and breast and discoloring her eyes, and his entire course of con-duct toward her has, with rare intervals, been constantly she have a decree of limited divorce. There being no answer flied, Judge Van Brunt, of the Gouttof Common Pleas, yesteriay ordered a reference. The divorce case of Hatzel va. Haizel was argued at considerable length before Chief Justice Curtis yesterday, to Special Term of the Superior Court, on a motion for almony and counsel fees. The husband, who is the plaintiff in the case, is a school teacher and employed in a German university at Morrisania. He charges his wife with adultery, which, however, ane emphasically desiles, in his opposing affidavits the husband says that he discovered his wife's inheletity through the medium of little scraps of a letter which he found on the floor, addressed to her paramour in Russia, and saking him for money, and upon his accusing her of unsatisfication he loved him still. Most of the affidavits related to money masters, and are entirely uninteresting to tag obbit. Judge Curtis and there was noting in the affidavits proving the wile's infidelity; that it was eas of those frequently recurring cases of entry domestic disruption, and, under all the circumstances, he though the motion should be granted. The amount of allmony and counsel fee was not positively dotermined.

SHIMMARY OF LAW CASES. Chief Justice Cursis, of the Superior Court, yesterday granted an order of reference in the suit of Jereroad Company to ascortain the damages sustained by the defendant by reason of the injunction restraining the building of the road, which was descrived, and to report the same to the Court. Ex-Judge Bosworth is restraining the Compireiter from selling at auction the farry franchise from foot of Tenth and Twenty-thurd streets, East River, to Greenpoint. The injunction was obtained at the instance of the Greenpoint Ferry Company.

Jeeph Engliss was charged before Commissioner Osbora yesterday with effering for sale an altered United States $1,000 bond. He was held for examination, which was set down for to-day.

George Washington Hilliard was before United States Commissioner Deuel yesterosy, on a charge of fraudulently obtaining a pension under the assumed name of John Preston. His explanation was that his name on shore is Georce Washington Hilliard, but that he enhanced in the United States may as John Preston, and under that same was compelled to draw his pension. He was discharged on his own recognizance.

Resthold Murchand sued Henry Carr. In the Marine Court, to receyor $2,000 damages, for having alterated the affections of his wife. The case came up for trial in Part 3 of the Court, before Judge Sinnott and a jury, yesterday, when testimony on benalf of defendant was given to the effect that plaintiff had been his agent and discharged and that this, as defendant a jury, yesterday, when testimony on benalf of defendant was given to the effect that plaintiff had been his agent and discharged and that this, as defendant. The extradition case of Elierbard Wiegand (the lacts of which he was innocent. Verdict for defendant.

The extradition case of Elierbard Wiegand (the lacts of which nave already been published) was before United States. Commissioner Osbory yesterday, Mr. Solomon, who appeared as counsel for the government of Hessee Darbinstedt, where the crime is alleged to have been committed, asid all the papers had arrived, but, using in German, a week would be necessary for their examination, and asked an adjournment for that time. The application was opposed by example of the commissioner.

GENERAL SESSIONS-PART 1. Before Judge Gilderalcove. A POBGIVING BROTHER.

David MacDonald, of St. Louis, was arrested some weeks ago on a bench warrant, issued from the Court of General Sessions, on an indictment charging bind with libel. He had just arrived from Europe in the with libel. He had just arrived from Europe in the Ethiopia, when he was taken into custody by Detectives O'Connor and Field. The charge was that of circulating through the mails certain libelious statements reflecting on the character and standing of his brother, Robert MacDonaid, an importer of laces at Nos. 64 and 66 Lispenard street. These libels, it was claimed, which were widely circulated through the United States and Europe, were calculated to injure his brother's business. David MacDonaid was accordingly arrested and indicted, and a warrant was also steed out for his arrest on civil proceedings, the buil being fixed at $10,000, cx United States District Autor pay Courtney representing Robert MacDonaid. The prisoner was admitted to bail in the sum of $15,000 on the criminal suit, but he was at once re-arrested and taken to Ludiow Street Jail in detauts of bail in the civil proceedings. A few days afterward the accused made a public retraction of the cibellous allegations against his orother, whom he declared he had tred to injuce in New York and several European cities. This being the case Mr. Robert MacDonaid, by advice of his counsel, Mr. Courtney, abandoned the civil proceedings against him, and the prisoner was accordingly discharged from Ludiow Street Jail; but the indictment still remained against him. At the opening of the Court yeaterday the accused was called to the bur by Assistant District Attorney Bell and pleaded guilty. Mr. Bell observed that inasmuch as the prisoner had made a full retraction of the talse charges against his brother Robert, who was astisfied that sentence should be discharged on his recognizance under a suspensional before the could be brought within this jurisdiction and pusished. Judge Cildersieeve and that as the effence complained of was simply a misdemeanor he would Ethiopia, when he was taken into custody by Detece could be brought within this jurisdiction and pun-shed. Judge Glidersieeve said that as the effence ountriance of was simply a misdemeator he would a cede to the request of the District Attorney and dis-ton, O'Conner and Field, for negotiating forged St. Louis county one thousand-dollar bonds, were yester-day arraigned for trial by Assautant District Attorney Herring The prisoners pleaded not guilty and were remanded to the Tombs.

ALLEGED PORGERS ABRAIGNED. "Culonel" William Carrers and John H. Husted, who were arrested on August 23 by Detectives Pinger-

THE CASE OF "JIM" BRADY. In this case, which was set down for trial to-day, it was apprehended that one of the most important witnesses, whose name was not mentioned, had mysteriously disappeared. The person in question was no other than Edward Brownfield, of No. 333 West Fourother than Edward Brownseld, of No. 332 West Four leenth street, one of the men whot by Brady on the 2d of August last. Anastant District Attorney Her ring, who has charge of the case, directed Officer Paddock, of the Bradway squad, who was also shot by Brady, to arross Brownseld wherever he should find him. Officer Paddock found him in Westchester, any outerday moreing took him before Judge Guiderniseve who committed him to the House of Detention as without in default of $2,000.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT. The Court was occupied during the greater portion of The Court was occupied during the greater portion of the day in the trial of Charles Tonniceded, a salesman in the employ of Messrs. Seady & Harvey, manufac-turers of leather belting, in Frankin street. The pris-oner was charged with embezzing $32.48, money which he had collected for the firm. It appeared that Tennics-field was twice betwee tried on similar charges and acquitted. The complainants, however, at the conclusion of the last trial had Tennicafield again acrosted and indicted on the charge on which he was tried yesterday. The prisoner admitted that he had expended it in the business of the firm, for whom he claimed to do a commission business. He was defended by Mr. Edgar M. Chipman, who claimed that this was nothing more than persecution on the part of the compisinant. It appeared in the course of the trial that anortly after the arrival of Tempiesfield in this country he was induced to commit a lorgery, and on pleading guilty served a term in the Pentientsary. He then went into the leather belting business, but was not successful. Among his creditors were Result & Harvey, to whom he owed about $700. This firm then engaged him, in order, it was averred, to secure the traits which Tennessield had gained, and also to reduce his indebtedness to them. Is was also stated that while in their employ he paid off between $300 and $400 of the debt, and Resuly & Harvey, among outers, exerted their influence to produce for Tennessield his restoration to citisenship. Mr. Chipman arged that Resuly & Harvey had perastonity persecuted his cition, and produced three of the juryman who acquitted the acquised on the last trial, who, it was alleged, heard Mr. Harvey say then that he would follow Tenniesteld to death or put him in the Pentioniary. Judge Gildersleves, however, excluded this syndence. The jury retired shortly after one o'clock, and after deliberating nearly three hours returned with a verdict of not guilty and the prisoner was discharged.

MARY SMITH'S GENEROSITY.

street, yesterday met on Tenth avenue an acquaint-ance named Mary Smith, an English tailoress, who ance samed Mary Smith, an Edgish tallores, was says she lives at No. 232 Second avenue. Mary was accompanied by another woman, who was unknown to Agues. After exchanging greatings and a short conversation Agues parted from her friend Mary, but soon after started very eagerly in search of her, as her pocketbook, containing $6.75, had disappeared, and suspicion pointed to Miss Smith and her friend as the guilty parties. Mary was found, and magnanimously offered to refund $2 of the amount provided Miss Hannon would not have her arrested. The ofter was rejected, and Mary was required by Judge Bixby to give $1,000 bail for trial at the General Sessions.

BURGLARS NICELY CAUGHT.

At two o'clock Wednesday morning, as Charles B. Lorraway was passing the shoe store of William Cummings, Jr., at No. 515 Eighth av., he noticed two mea acting suspiciously, and resolved to watch them. a after he heard the ora the pair emerging from the store with an armful of plunder. Larraway gave the alarm, and Officers Mulligan and Biglin, of the Twentieth precinct, arreate the men, who proved to be John Wilson, of No. 51: West Twenty-seventh street, and James Rogers, of No. 510 West Thirty-seventa atreet. About $15 worth of shoes were found in their possession. Judge sixby committed them for trial in default of $1,500 batt each

HOW ROBB WAS ROBBED.

Mr. James Robb, of No. 297 Seventh avenue, finding business dull, on Tuesday last concluded to take a trip to Coney Island, and shut up his store. He gave the key to John Lynch, a lotterer about the neighbor-hood, in whom nevertheless Robb seemed to have confidence. Lynch availed himself of the opportunity to onter the store, and stole $31 in money and a siver watch worth $5. Officer Duff, of the Twenty-ninth precinct, took Lysch into costedy, and Robb yester-day preferred a complaint against the faithless friend, who aumitted the thoft, but boldly maintained that the amount was only $21. Judge Bixby held him in $600 to answer.

THE SPIDER AND THE FLY.

Returning from Rockaway on Monday to his restdence, William Clancy, of No. 558 Second avenue, was invited by a stranger to "come over and see his as she was "from the same part of the old mother," as she was "from the same part of the old country." Clancy stepped over to a house epposition and the stranger went down to bring the lady up. He reappeared with another man, who, while Clancy's attention was directed elsewhere, struck him on the buck of the head with a bedpost and then took away his money. In the Fifty-seventh Street Court pasterday William Sutton, whom Clancy and he recognized as his assailant, was held in $2,000.

DISHONEST SERVANTS.

For several weeks past Captain Riely, of the Thirteen's precinct, Brooklyn, has been on the trail of of victimizing their employers by stealing wearing ap-parel and money. The thieves, whose names are Maggie McEllroy, aged twenty years, and Annie Searing, twenty-seven years of age, are now in custody, and were yesterday committed to the Raymond Street Jail to await examination before Justice Riley, Third District Court The girl McEliroy, who, when not in service resided with her parents in Gates avenue, has served a term in the House of Refuge for her incorrigible conduct. About six weeks ago she obtained board at the residence of a Mrs. Connors, in Washington street, New York, representing that she was out of employment, but that her propects were excellent for an early engagement. Her address was good, as was also her appearance, and the first intimation Mrs. Connors had of her real character was when she suddenly disappeared, taking with her about $40 worth of wearing apparet. Captain Riely arrested Maggic, whom he found hiding in the cellar of her parents' house. The police, on further prosecuting their search for evidence sgansst hiss McEliroy, learned that she had been co-operating with Annie Searing in a systematic manner in executing robberles, as soon as one would find employment she would notify the other of a favorable time to call and carry off stolen articles. Several complaints have been fodged for grand harceny against the Searing woman, She is a widow and is known by the aliases of "Brogan," "Brown" and "Stewart," has served sixteen months in the Kings County Peuttentiary upon conviction for stealing $50 from Counsellor Anthony Barrett, of the Police Board, and $40 from Mrs. Gorman, of Gates avenue. McEllroy, who, when not in service, resided with her

THE BROOKLYN INFANTICIDE

An luquest was held by Coroner Simms at the Brooklyn Morgne yesterday on the body of the infant which was found under a pile of hot ashes in the which was found inner a pite of not asked in the ceilar of Mr. D. Gilespie's bouse, in Bergen street, where the remains had been placed by Catherine Saunders, the mother, who was employed there as a domestic. The latter testified that the child was still-born. Dr. A. W. Shepard, who made the posi-moriem examination, however, testified that the infant had been bern alive. The jury found that the child came to his death by violence, and the woman was held to await the action of the terand Jury. BOARD OF EDUCATION.

OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS-NO MORE VICE PRINCIPALS-A JUDGMENT RESISTED. The first meeting of the Board of Education after their summer vacation was held yesterday alternoon, at four o'clock, in their building, corner of Eim and Grand streets. All the members were present. The report of the Superintendent of Truancy was read, showing that all truants who had been confined had secu treed, twelve of them having been confined in the Catholic Protectory and two on Raudali's Island. Other communications from the different school trus-Catable Protectory and two on Randall's Inland.

Other communications from the different school trustions of the wards, nominating teachers and announcing vacancies, were read and referred to the appropriate committees. Several schools are undergoing repairs, and the trustees asked that they be closed until the repairs could be completed.

Br. W. H. Jacques, unsector of the Schoolship St. Mary's, resigned his position on account of ill health. Accepted.

Mr. F. I. Coudert offered as a prize to the best student in French in the Normal College a gold watch, and President William Wood offered a prize of $40, gold, to the second best student. Referred to the Committee on the Normal College.

Mr. W. H. Wickham, of the Board, offered a resolution by which a saving of $1,850 a year might be made by reducing the salaries of the instructors on Saturday evenings at the Normal College. Referred to the Committee on Bylaws.

The Committee on Bylaws reported favorably upon an amendment probibiling the appointment of vice principals in future, the grounds of sach sotion being the desire to save money by allowing the authority now delegated to the vice principals as future, the grounds of sach sotion being the desire to save money by allowing the authority now delegated to the vice principals as future, the grounds of sach sotion being the desire to save money by allowing the authority now delegated to the vice principals and paid a tigher salary. the assistants, who would be just as much respected us if they were called vice principals and paid a higher salary. This does not interfere with those already appointed.

The Committee on School Buildings and Furniture reported a project to make the school turniture uniform in all the schools of the city. They recommended sample decks and seats to be made for the inspection of the Board. Commissioner West objected on the ground that it would be creating a monopoly and would in the end be of more expense to the Board. The report was however adopted by a vote of 18 to 2.

A report was read from the Building Committee to pay $5.000, judgment obtained against the Board by the owners of a piece of preperty when had been builtupon by the Board for Grammar School No. 49. In Thirty-seventh street. A resolution was offered that the amount of judgment be paid. This was lost by a vote of 18 in favor and 6 against the resolution, fourteen votes being required to carry the motion. The motion was reconsidered and a long debate ensued. Some were not willing to pay, as they considered the sum of $5,000 an imposition. Others thought it better to pay, as the property owners might eject them and it would cost them more than $10,000 to erect a seniord house at another place. The reactions was flashy lost by a vote of 11 to 8, 14 being required. The votes against paying the money were those of President Wood and Commissioners Baker, Beardslee, Cohon, Place, Walker, West and Wetmore.

Wetmore.

A resolution appropriating $4,000 to buy a piece of ground in West Forty-fourte street, adjoining Grammar School No. 61, was adopted, and the meeting then adjourned.
